by the villagers for the benefit of the Institution. During the famine of 1876 some thieves broke into the temple and pulled down and mutilated the chief idol in their attempt to secure a treasure which they supposed had been hidden underneath the pedestal. The worship in the temple was thereupon ~~discontinued~~ abandoned. At the Survey Settlement which took place 3 years later, ie in 1879; the tope was registered as 'Charity Tope' and treated as Sircar land, as no one then came forward to ~~represent~~ urge the temple's ~~interests in the tope~~ claims thereto owing to the neglected condition of the Institution as explained above. The realisations from the tope, averaging to 8 as a year, are now being credited to the Revenues of the village under the head "Amarayi."

Vide Extract of Survey Thaisal Patrika in the Vernacular file.

3 The villagers, with the permission of the Deputy Commissioner, have since re-constructed the temple in another site in the village and have established worship therein. They pray that the tope in question may be restored to the temple and registered in its name.

4 In proof that prior to the Survey Settlement the tope was being enjoyed by the temple, the Taluk Amildar refers* to the old Revenue Accounts of the years Śarábhava (1846-7), Kalayukti (1858-9) and Siddhárti (1859-60), in all of which the tope has, it is reported, been entered as "Kasi Visiwanatha's tope". The villagers also have filed a lease-deed in respect of the tope executed on stamp paper under date 19th July 1875 by one Ganigar Kaidalayya; in this deed, the tope has been described as "Inam tope of Kasi Visweswara temple," and the money paid by the lessee was to be applied by the Archak for the purposes of the temple.

5. The tope which bears Survey No. 13 comprises an area of 1 acre 37 cents, and is unassessed. In it there are 43 trees as detailed in the margin

In reply to a further reference on the subject made in this Office No 823.[x] dated 27th January 1900, Inward 107-92 the Deputy Commissioner now[+] states that the tope in question is reported to have been planted about a hundred years ago, that since then it was enjoyed by the temple up to the time of Survey Settlement in 1879, and that the old records shewing when, under what circumstances and under what authority the cash and land inams endowed to the old temple came to be continued to the new one, are not now traceable in this Office. However, considering that the tope had been in the undisputed enjoyment of the temple for many years up to the date of the Survey Settlement, the Deputy Commissioner recommends that the same may now be restored to the Institution.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that a Tope planted by the villagers of Tyamagondalu in the Nelamangala Taluk for the benefit of the Kasi Viswaswara Temple in that village has been brought under Balaye since the last Famine, owing to the removal of the Deity from the Temple and the non performance of Pooja. In the Survey Settlement of 1879, the Tope has been recognized as a "Dharma or Charitable Tope" The villagers have subsequently reconstructed the Temple and the Pooja is regularly conducted. They now pray that the Tope in Question may be restored for the benefit of the Temple.

2. The Amildar reports that the Topic in Question was planted by the Villagers and Recommends its restoration to the Temple.

3. I solicit orders in the matter.

4. Velamangala Amildar's urzee No. 38 together with its enclosures are enclosed for reference.

Correspondence ending with letter No 1163 dated 1st June 1900, from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, recommending the restoration to the temple of Sri Kasi Visweswara at Iyamagondlu in Nelamangala Taluk, of a tope which had formerly been in the enjoyment of the institution.

Order thereon.

No 430—2
Inam 7 107-92
En Upp.
Dy 19th October 1900.

The temple of Sri Kasi Visweswara in Iyamagondlu is a muzrai institution in receipt of a cash allowance of Rs 8-12-0 a year.

2 From the Deputy Commissioner's report and the Vernacular records received therewith, it appears that the tope in question which now forms Survey No. 13 of Tyamagondlu village and is unassessed, was originally planted around the temple by the villagers for the benefit of the institution. During the famine of 1876, some thieves broke into the temple and pulled down and mutilated the chief idol in their attempt to secure a treasure which, they supposed, had been hidden underneath the pedestal. The worship was thereupon abandoned. At the Survey Settlement which took place 3 years later, i.e in 1879, the topes was registered as "Charity tope" and treated as "Sirkar land as no one then came forward to urge the temple's claims thereto owing to the neglected condition of the institution as explained above. The realizations from the Tope averaging to 8 annas a year are now being credited to the revenues of the village under the head "Amarajis".

3. The villagers, with the permission of the Deputy Commissioner, have since re-constructed the temple on another site in the village and have established worship therein; and they pray that the Tope in question may be restored to the temple and registered in its name.

in proof that, prior to the Survey settlement,
the tope was being enjoyed by the temple it is reported that in all the old Revenue
Accounts of the years
Sarábhavá (1846-7), Kálayukti
(1858-9) and Siddhárti (1859-60), the tope has been entered as "Kasi Viswanatha's tope" and the villagers also have filed a lease-deed in respect of the tope executed on Stamp
paper under date 19th July 1875 by one Sangar Kaidalayya
and in which the tope has been described as "Inam
tope of Kasi Visweswara temple
and it is ~~further~~ stipulated that the ~~money paid by the~~ ~~lessee~~ lease amount ~~was to~~ should be applied by the Archak for the purposes of the temple. The Commissioner in consideration of the fact that the Tope had been in the undisputed enjoyment of the temple for many years previous to the Survey Settlement, recommends that the same may now be restored to the Institution.

5. In the circumstances above explained, the Govt are pleased to sanction the restoration of the Tope to the temple as recommended by the Deputy Commissioner. The Tope will accordingly be registered in the name of the Temple.

6. The Dy Commissioner will instruct the Taluk Amildar as the Local Muzrai Officer to make
